

Partial list of the Bridges Family in Service to the United States

Colonel Joseph Bridger

- Member of the Cavalier Army in the British Civil Wars
- Member of the Virginia Council of State 1673-1686
- Co-Acting Governor of Virginia 1684 & 1685
- Colonel of Isle of Wight County's militia by 1673-1686
- Adjutant General of Virginia 1666
- Commander of Nine Virginia Counties for Defense against Indians 1680
- Commander of Four Virginia Counties for Defense against Indians 1683
- Deputy Vice Admiral of Virginia 1683

Bacon's Rebellion

- Colonel Joseph Bridger (fought against Nathaniel Bacon)
- General Joseph Bridger Jr (sided with Nathaniel Bacon)

Militia of Isle of Wight County, VA

- Lieutenant Colonel Samuel Bridger
- Colonel William Bridger of White Marsh
- General Joseph Bridger Jr

French & Indian War

- Private John Bridges, son of William Bridges - awarded 50 Acres by King George

Indian Expedition in 1779

- James Aaron (Shoal Creek) Bridges was a spy on this expedition.
- James Aaron Bridges also served as a "Captain of Horse" in 1780-1781 during the Revolutionary War.

Roster of soldiers from North Carolina in the American Revolution - 5 of 7 sons of William Bridges, Jr.

- North Carolina Militia
- Isaac Bridges - Morgan District Militia
- John M. Bridges - Halifax District Militia
- Moses Bridges - Morgan District Militia
- Thomas Bridges - Halifax District Militia
- William Bridges - Halifax District Militia

Roster of the North Carolina volunteers in the Spanish-American War, 1898-1899

- Joseph R. Bridges
- John M. Bridges

War of 1812

- Ephraim D. Chiswill Bridges - 5 Regiment (Booth's), East Tennessee Militia
- Frederick Kimbro – Captain Stockard's Company of the North Carolina Militia

Civil War - 5 sons of John M. Bridges

- Confederacy
- Aaron Bridges - 11th Regiment, Missouri Infantry
- Ephraim D Chiswill Bridges - 36th Regiment, Mississippi Infantry
- Thomas S Bridges - 28th Regiment, North Carolina Infantry

John S. Bridges - 28th Regiment, North Carolina Infantry
Samuel G. H. Bridges - 28th Regiment, North Carolina Infantry
Solomon (S. W.) Dunning - 37th Regiment, Arkansas Infantry Company I
Caleb Rhea - 22nd Regiment, Illinois Infantry, Company D

Union

Miles Dunning - 3rd Regiment, Kentucky Cavalry Regiment, Company A
George Dunning - 3rd Regiment, Kentucky Cavalry Regiment, Company A

Battle of the Little Big Horn

Bloody Knife – Arikara Scout for George Armstrong Custer

U.S. World War II Army Enlistment Records, 1938-1946

Chester M. Bridges - Regular Army - Army Air Corps
John Thomas Bridges, Jr - Regular Army, Multiple Medals
Theodore W. Bridges - Regular Army - Army Air Corps

Korean Conflict

Chester M. Bridges - USAF
John Thomas Bridges, Jr - Regular Army
James A. Bridges – USAF
Joseph A. Bridges - USAF

US Army Air Corps

Charles O. Bridges
James A. Bridges
Joseph A. Bridges
Chester M. Bridges

US Army (Old Regulars)

John Thomas Bridges, Jr - Multiple Medals (Silver Star, Bronze Star, Purple Heart, 3 recommendations for Medal, refused field commissions, accepted commission to Warrant Officer, etc)

US Army

James A. Bridges Jr
Bonnie Bridges
Tommy Bridges
Joseph Arthur Bridges III

US Army National Guard

Andy Hayden Bridges

US Air Force

James A. Bridges
Joseph A. Bridges
Chester M. Bridges
Ouesia Bridges
Thresia Maurine Bridges
Joseph Arthur Bridges II

US Marine Corps
Jeremy Bridges
Michael Joseph Richards

Vietnam Conflict
Tommy Bridges - US Army
John Thomas Bridges, Jr - GSA Tugboat operator, injured after shelling of tugboat.

IRAQ
Joseph Arthur Bridges III
Michael Joseph Richards

GSA
Joseph A. Bridges (recruited to train Air Force personnel for converting wiring of B52's to AWAC's)
John Thomas Bridges, Jr (Tugboat operator - Viet Nam Conflict, Heavy Equipment Operator in Alaska)

Secret Service
Tommy Bridges

IRS
Martin O. Bridges, Sr